

Monmouth Black
Hook Company
Monmouth, Ill.

Hope Star

THE WEATHER
Partly cloudy tonight and Friday

VOLUME 31—NUMBER 162

(AP)—Means Associated Press.
(NPA)—Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.

HOPE, ARKANSAS, THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1930

Star of Hope founded 1899; Hope Daily Press,
1927; Consolidated at Hope Star, January 18, 1929.

PRICE 5c COP

OPEN WAR FEARED AT PRISON

Fulton and McNab Report Increases In Census Count

McNab Shows Population Total of 223, 147 In 1920

HOPE TOTAL SOON

Report on Ward Expected Before Close of Month

Two Hempstead county towns report substantial increases in population on the complete preliminary count certified to The Star today by J. Warren Stevens, supervisor of census, at Texarkana.

The towns are McNab and Fulton. McNab shows a total of 223, as compared with 147 in 1920.

Fulton's population today is given as 593, as compared with 543 ten years ago.

Two partial reports were also given by Mr. Stevens on the population of Boone D'Arc township. One report on 251 farms shows an enumeration of 965, while the second report, including 63 farms, gave a total of 663.

The population of Hope, on the preliminary count of three wards has been reported by Mr. Stevens as 3,614. This includes Ward Two, Three and Four, but omits Ward one—which is estimated to be twice as large at the average of the other wards. The report on Ward One is expected before the close of this month.

Hope Expects 300 For District Meet

Almost Every School In Area Is Entered In Contests

Approximately 300 students representing almost every high school included in scholastic district No. 10, will be in Hope, Friday and Saturday, to compete in the various events of the district literary and field meet.

The tourney will open Friday morning with spelling contests in the senior division. These will be followed in order by various other literary events. Preliminaries in field and track events will begin at 2 p. m., Friday at Fair Park. Contestants in music will compete at the Methodist church beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Saturday's program will open with competition in piano in the senior girls' division, to be followed in the afternoon with athletic finals. Officials will award trophies to winners at the conclusion of the senior girls' glee club contest, which will bring the tournament to a close Saturday night.

Four Persons Are Burned To Death

Another Is Missing After Fire Destroys Home

BOONEVILLE, N. Y., April 24.—(AP)—Four persons were burned to death and a fifth is missing in a fire which destroyed the large colonial home of Bert Cronk, coal dealer early today. Mr. and Mrs. Cronk and Mrs. Paul Anni and her young daughter, were said by firemen to have died in the blaze. Another person is said to be missing.

Clifford, young son of the Cronks, leaped from a window to safety. He is suffering from effects of the smoke, and is in a serious condition.

When Robins Chant Death Song

COLUMBUS, O., April 23.—In the trees of state fair grounds this morning a robin sang a song of the coming of spring and the sweetness of life. It sounded almost like a lie.

For inside the great central exhibit hall of the state fair was a sight so supremely terrible that it seemed as if this and the robin's song must belong to different worlds.

Through the black-long wings of the exhibit hall stood row upon row of white tables. And on each table lay the twisted body of a man—319 of them—burned or suffocated in the fire that swept Ohio state prison Monday night.

They lay in all the different attitudes in which men meet death. Some were black and crisp, with arms outstretched and charred fingers still clenched, just as they died clutching the bars of their flaming cells.

Others were merely still white forms, tangled hair and bare feet sticking grotesquely out from either end of a sheet. Here and there was one whose face bore a smile strangely sincere, as if death had been gentle and not unwelcome.

Outside the hall, soldiers in uniform paced their patrols, wearing paths in the fresh spring grass. Inside, 86 embalmers worked silently and swiftly.

Without was the scent of the grasses and new leaves and clean winds; within, the bitter, nauseating smell of embalming fluids, the destructive odor of death.

The scene was matter of fact. The soldiers, their tired faces belying their words, passed quips and jokes as they stood at ease. The embalmers went about their task in a business-like way, passing from one white table to the other, some laughing and joking as they worked.

Shortly after 7 o'clock this morning the mess call was sounded and a line of khaki-clad men filed past a temporary kitchen set up in the rotunda of the hall. There in the midst of death the soldiers breakfasted.

Few of them ate much.

At the entrance to the grounds a little knot of women was gathered. Every now and then one of them would approach the lieutenant in command of the guard.

"If Ah could just go in for a minute, mister," one old negro woman said, "Ah could find my boy right away if he's theh. His name's Thomas, mister."

She turned away in tears as the lieutenant, stiffly impersonal, shook his head.

Just at that moment the robin's call came again from the trees. The lieutenant's face twitched. "Damn that bird!" he said.

Masked Mob Drags Negro Three Miles for Lynching Party

Negro Attacks White Woman and Clubs Sheriff

RIDDLES BODY

Officer In Serious Condition After Beating

WALHALLA, S. C., April 24.—(AP)—A masked mob today lynched Allen Green, 50-year-old negro, charged with attacking a white woman after clubbing and seriously injuring Sheriff John Thomas who tried to protect his prisoner. Green was dragged from Oconee county, tied to a tree and his body riddled with bullets.

At Anderson, S. C., where Sheriff Thomas was taken, hospital attendants said his skull was fractured, and that he might die. The mob carried the negro three miles before lynching him. His body was found swinging from a tree, torn to threads where bullets struck him, after a few hundred men had stormed the county jail.

Green was arrested Sunday, after an attack upon the white woman. The next day he was given a preliminary hearing and ordered held in jail without bond until given a trial.

Legion to Pass on Festival Tonight

Important Meeting at 7:30 at The City Hall

Final decision of the American Legion on whether it will again accept management of the Watermelon Festival, is expected at the regular meeting of Leslie Huddleston post at 7:45 o'clock tonight in the city hall.

Post Commander Barney Hamm wishes to settle the Watermelon Festival business at once, and asks a full attendance of the Legion membership tonight.

Hope Chamber of Commerce, at the last meeting of the executive board, again asked Mr. Hamm and his organization to handle the Festival, which the Legion so successfully managed last year. The Legion, however, never has accepted; but will probably report one way or the other to the Chamber of Commerce following tonight's meeting.

Halsey-Stuart Co. Agent Visits City

Famous Bond House Man Tours State Roads Here

A bond house man inspecting the character of a country to which his firm is loaning millions of dollars is as critical as a surgeon looking at a patient, local highway officials reported today, following the visit here of B. J. Larkin, nationally known economic authority for the famous Halsey Stuart & Co. banking house, New York.

Mr. Larkin, whose firm has purchased most of the state's gasoline tax notes, toured East and Central Arkansas last week, and the first half of this week visited Camden, Hope and El Dorado.

He came here from Camden Monday accompanied by E. N. Jenkins, division engineer for the State Highway Department. They were met at Chickadee by District Engineer R. B. Stantard of Hope, who toured them over the state highways in Nevada, Hempstead, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties.

Mr. Stantard sought to introduce Mr. Larkin to local bankers and other business men, but the New Yorker had only a limited time to spend in this territory.

When a bond-buyer asks the humble folk when he visits them, was illustrated by the questions Mr. Stantard reported that Mr. Larkin put to him on their flying trip through this section.

When told about Hempstead county's big watermelons, Mr. Larkin asked: "Are the farmers really trying to get away from the one-crop method of farming, cotton?"

"Have your county authorities any

As Ohio Prison Counted Its Dead

Top: This view of Ohio State Penitentiary was taken a few hours after the disastrous fire which took a toll of 300 lives. The arrow points to the cell block where convicts were trapped and burned to death.

Center: Row upon row of bodies of convicts who were burned to death or suffocated in their cells are shown here in a temporary morgue at Ohio State Penitentiary. Convicts who escaped with their lives are shown in background.

Bottom: Ohio State Penitentiary officials and prisoners are shown here joining in the gruesome task of identifying the bodies of convicts who burned to death or suffocated when trapped in the main cell block. J. C. Woodward, deputy warden, is shown with the flashlight.

General Spirit Of Unrest Flames In Open Revolt

Convicts Demand Dismissal of Prison Warden

CONVICTS UNITED

Lives of Prison Guards Are Threatened Make Demands

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 24.—(AP)—Attorney General Gilbert Gettman left Ohio penitentiary hastily this afternoon to confer with Governor Cooper on a proposal to temporarily suspend Preston Thomas, warden of the prison.

The action was taken when several thousand prisoners avowed they would revolt against Thomas' rule. They charged the warden with cruelty and held him responsible in part for the 318 men dying in the prison fire Monday night.

PRISONERS ATTACK CONVICT EDITOR

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 24.—(AP)—Despite appeals from ministers and quietude in the idle house, convicts attacked dis-obedience today. More than 100 convicts in the chapel house came out on the prison yard and milled about shouting and screaming. They attacked George Richmond, convict editor of the prison paper. He was rescued, however, by guards without serious injury.

Former prison Chaplain T. A. Reed, who went into the idle house earlier in an effort to quiet the unruly convicts, came out and announced that the prisoners had made three demands. The first was to have Joe Richardson, convicted murderer, scheduled to die tomorrow night, be changed from the death sentence to life imprisonment. The second was to immediately remove the board of clemency. The third was to have an immediate supply of tobacco.

An idle house guard rushed out of the block about noon today and informed Warden Thomas that if all guards were not removed they would be killed. Col. R. L. Haubert, commanding officer of the National Guard who went inside the prison for an hour, came back and reported to Warden Thomas that the prisoners were organized and had their leaders.

SPRIT OF UNREST FLAMES IN REVOLT

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 24.—(AP)—As investigators of the Ohio prison fire today continued their inquiry into the disaster which took a toll of 319 men, the general spirit of unrest flamed open in revolt. After reports from some 2000 convicts in the idle house threatened open warfare if they were not released immediately.

It was said that they would kill scores of guards in the cell blocks of not lapsed from their steel cages into the prison yard. In the yard where some 100 convicts are temporarily confined in the chapel house, were inflamed today by incendiary speeches made by leaders. These men were from the cell blocks where the fire Monday night took its greatest toll.

National Guards and prison officials attempted to quiet them in an effort to try and find out what caused the fire and thus fix blame, if any on state officials. Governor Myers J. Cooper stated he was considering plans to relieve the crowded condition at the prison.

The first step will be to transfer the short-term convicts to the Lonsdon prison farm. The program also calls for building new cell blocks at the prison as well as rebuilding the fire swept G and H houses where last Monday the blaze had its origin.

Governor Cooper let it be known today that he is satisfied with Warden Thomas in handling the situation of the fire, and indicated that no change in the prison personnel is planned.

Bill Approved To Spend Money in Ark.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—(AP)—The house military committee today approved the Glover bill to authorize the secretary of war to expend $450,000 for construction of a new unit at the army and navy hospital at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

HAVE YOU BEEN ENUMERATED?

If you live in a city which had 2500 or more population in 1920 and have not been enumerated, or if you have any doubt, fill out this coupon and mail.

To: J. WARREN STEVENS, Supervisor of Census
Texarkana, Arkansas.

On April 1, 1930, I was living at address given below, but to the best of my knowledge I have not been enumerated, either there or anywhere else.

Name _____ Street and No. _____

City _____ State _____

German Liner In Slight Collision

DOVER, Eng., April 24.—(AP)—The giant German liner Bremen, sister ship of the record-breaking Europa, figured in a slight collision with the tanker Grenadier just off Dungeness in the English channel this morning. A dense fog was the cause of the collision.

The Bremen, outward bound, apparently was little if any damaged. The tanker was badly battered on her port side.

What a bond-buyer asks the humble folk when he visits them, was illustrated by the questions Mr. Stantard reported that Mr. Larkin put to him on their flying trip through this section.

When told about Hempstead county's big watermelons, Mr. Larkin asked: "Are the farmers really trying to get away from the one-crop method of farming, cotton?"

"Have your county authorities any definite road-building program, or is it purely political?"

"What is the average rainfall in this section?"

"Do the farmers raise feed for their stock and their families, or do they buy it?"

"Country school are improving—but are the boys and girls staying on the farm when they finished school?"

"Are these farmers all buying automobiles? I saw one back yonder that was as big as the man's cabin."

Mr. Sanford said no three men could have answered all the visitor's questions off-hand, but he sent Mr. Larkin on to El Dorado with a good picture of the wealth and population of this section.

MIRACLE PLAY

Husband (at the theater): This play makes me think.

Wife: Yes, it's a most extraordinary play.—Tit-Bits.

Miss Fay Johnson, of Prescott, was in Hope last night.

Convict Heroes of Fire

Two convict heroes of the Ohio State Penitentiary fire at Columbus are pictured here. Narciso Gaeta, in striped pants, a Mexican serving time for robbery, was the last man out of the burning building. He carried more than 30 fellow convicts from the cell block. Behind Gaeta is Dr. George W. Kell, who helped care for the injured, and directly behind Dr. Kell is Ben Rudner of Canton, O., sentenced for the murder of Don Mellett, newspaper editor.

Flying Scientists To Photograph Eclipse Monday

By ISRAEL KLEIN
NEA Service

An army airplane, sailing along at 100 miles an hour, nearly 20 miles above the earth and carrying a scientist with a powerful camera, will be the chief instrument with which American astronomers will seek to check up on the total eclipse of the sun on April 28.

This will be the first total eclipse visible in this country since the one on January 24, 1925, which darkened New York and New England and was partially visible over a much wider area. The 1930 eclipse will reach its maximum over the Pacific coast, but will likewise be partially visible over practically all of the United States and Canada.

The eclipse caused by the passing of the moon between the sun and the earth will be total only in a very restricted area; and although the darkness will come gradually and disappear slowly the period of actual totality will last only one second.

Consequently, scientists are making elaborate and carefully-cultivated plans for photographing the eclipse at the instant of its maximum.

Total in Northwest
Beginning slightly above San Francisco and running northeast over California, northwest Nevada, the southwestern tip of Oregon and central Idaho, the shadow formed by the total eclipse will cut a black band less than half a mile wide by ending somewhere in Montana. Beyond that point the eclipse will no longer be total.

Within that area, shortly before 11 a. m., observers can see a total eclipse. Twilight conditions will prevail. Throughout the rest of the United States the eclipse will be only partial, decreasing in intensity as the distance increases.

In Carson City, Nev., and Helena, Mont., for instance, the eclipse will be 97 per cent. In Washington, D. C., the heavens will begin to darken shortly after 2 p. m., and at 3:23 p. m. a maximum of 49 per cent. will be reached. In New York, the intensity will be 54 per cent; in Boston, 58 per cent; in Chicago 64 per cent; in New Orleans, 30 per cent; in Atlanta, 36 per cent.

Test for Astronomers
Because it casts such a narrow band

Held in Death of Child by Fire

Ralph Mumbulo, above, a washing-machine salesman, is being held at Norwich, N. Y., in connection with the alleged "torch murder" of his 11-year-old daughter, Hilda Mumbulo. His bride, Mrs. Edna Mumbulo, whom he married shortly after the girl was found burned to death, has been charged with the killing.

University Deans In Annual Meeting

National Association of Deans of Men to Convene May 1

FAYETTEVILLE, April 24.—(AP)—Approximately 80 university deans, members of the National Association of Deans of Men, will convene here at the University of Arkansas May 1-3 in annual convention.

Fraternity problems, which have arisen in increasing number at major American universities in the past few years, will be discussed during the initial session of the association. Coincident with, and parallel to organization difficulties, is the housing problem facing both university students and officials. This phase of university life will be taken up at the afternoon session.

Dean J. W. Armstrong, of Northwestern University president of the association, will preside over the three-day meeting of the association. Dean G. E. Ripley and President J. C.

Futrell, both of the University of Arkansas, will act as host delegates. The tentative program includes addresses by Dean Thomas Arlie Clark, of the University of Illinois, dean of deans; Dean Stanley M. Coulter, of Purdue University, and Dean W. L. Sanders, of Ohio Wesleyan University. Dean Armstrong will speak before the convention of the future of deanships.

The second day's session will revolve about regular office procedure of the university dean of men together with problems of student behavior.

Education, in general terms, will be discussed at the final morning session. The final business meeting and annual election of officers will close the convention in the afternoon.

STUTTGART, April 22.—(AP)—W. T. Watson Mill and Lumber Yard at Humphrey, 14 miles west of here, was destroyed by fire last night. Officials of the company estimated the loss at between $15,000 and $20,000.

The Stuttgart fire department, responding to a call for assistance, prevented the spread to other buildings, although arriving too late to save the mill and lumber yard.

FATHER'S PET STORY

Little Lotty: Mother, do all fairy tales begin, "Once Upon a Time?" he working late at the office.—An-Mother: No, dear, some begin, "I'll answer."

P. & O. Cultivators

We have cut our stock down on all items except cultivators in order to remodel. For a short time we are offering P. & O. Walking Cultivators at the following low price:

Balance Frame Walking Cultivators.....$37.50
Straight Frame Walking Cultivators.....$37.50
Cultivators complete with Heel Bolts and Scratchers$50.00

5% off above prices for cash.

South Arkansas Implement Co.

212 So. Walnut St.

HOPE

After-Easter Clean-Up of SHOES

Drastic Price Reductions--Friday and Saturday

This special two-day sale includes several hundred pairs of men's and boys' shoes, several dozen pairs of Misses shoes, sizes 8½ to 2, and the odds and ends of our recent $2.98 sale of Ladies Shoes. This tremendous stock of shoes must be reduced, and the only way we know of doing it is to cut the price. And that's what we have done.

Every Pair All Leather

The men's and boys' shoes are fine styles in good grade collegiate or conservative lasts in black or tan. Misses black, blonde and patent one-straps. Broken lines of ladies shoes in high or walking heels—all good styles.

2,000 Pairs Men's Ladies' and Children's Shoes

$1.98

Former Values From $4 to $10

Well known brands—styles that are not out of date, but right up to now, good leathers, and a size for every foot is featured in this special sale of shoes Friday and Saturday.

Ladies Mat Kids, Beige Clares, Blonde, Wine, Blue, Red, Sun Tan, Patent, and every wanted Spring shoe. Pumps, straps, oxfords and ties. Sizes from 2½ to 9, widths AAA to EE.

Men's shoes of known style, quality and value at half the former price, or less.

A two day opportunity to buy footwear for every member of the family at tremendous savings.

Geo. W. Robison & Co.

"THE LEADING DEPARTMENT STORE"
NASHVILLE

PRESCOTT

HOPE

D. B. THOMPSON & CO.
Hotel Barlow Building, Phone 100
K. G. McRAE HARDWARE CO.

A Guarantee of absolute Satisfaction

A record of unquestioned leadership

A design that permits instant, economical service, without moving the machine from the premises

THIS IS ONE REASON WHY -

3 times as many Frigidaires are now in use as any other make of electric refrigerator.....

...Hundreds of thousands of Frigidaires have never required any SERVICE

SOCIETY

Mrs. Sid Henry Telephone 321

In the end some good remain. Shall we regret its birth in pain? If at the last some splendor shows, The flaming fire, the smoke and grime Of truth's preparatory time? Out of the ugliness of things The flaming fire, the smoke and grime! And triumph crowns the battle lost Shall we regret the strength it cost? Does night continue long to please Which can by all be done with ease? 'Tis only after tolls some years The greatness of the soul appears. —E. A. Guest.

Mrs. Paul Cornelius, of McCame, was brought to Julia Chester hospital for treatment Thursday.

Personal Mention

Miss Gladys Burke daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burke of DeAnn, was taken to Cora Donald hospital at Prescott, Tuesday, where she will undergo an operation. Friends are hoping for her a speedy recovery.

John G. Williams, Jr., of Dallas, has been spending the Easter holidays with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Williams, Sr.

Miss Claudie Lee Burke of Arkadelphia, spent the week end with home folks.

Miss Martha Lee Roberts of Arkadelphia spent the week end with her parents at DeAnn.

E. P. Young, Chevrolet dealer made a business trip to El Dorado Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burke took their daughter, Gladys, to Cora Donald hospital at Prescott Tuesday afternoon, where she will be treated.

Miss ouise Hannegan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hannegan, South Elm street, was operated on for appendicitis this morning at Julia Chester hospital.

Dr. P. B. Carrigan and sister, Miss Mary, left at noon today for a few days visit in New Orleans.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. England gave a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. J. W. England's 31st birthday, his grandson Allen England, and his great grandson McRae Honeycutt, Jr.

Those who enjoyed the birthday dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Virgil England and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Baker of Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of Hope, Wayne England of DeQueen, Miss Ada Mae England of Magnolia College, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Honeycutt of Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Segner of Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson of Hope, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Centerville, Mrs. Josephine Jones, John Baber of Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cole of Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kizer of Hope, Delton Houston Allen Jones.

WESTERMAN-RHODES

Harry Westerman and Miss Myrtle Rhodes eloped to Texarkana Sunday afternoon where they were married by Rev. O. J. Wade, pastor of the East Side Baptist church of that city. They were accompanied to Texarkana by Harold Alpuente and Miss Teresa Urban of this city. Harry is the son of Charles Westerman, linotype operator for the Hope Morning News, and Mrs. Westerman, the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rhodes of this city. The young people are well known in this city, and their semi-elopement and marriage came as a surprise to their circle of friends. They have taken rooms on South Laurel street.

The Star extends congratulations and best wishes to these young people.

County Singing at Columbus Sunday

Singing services which are held every fourth Sunday at Shover Springs will be postponed this coming Sunday which falls on the fourth, on account of the county singing which is to be held at Columbus. Hereafter the services will be held at Shover Springs every fourth Sunday. The county singing is expected to be attended by a large crowd at Columbus. Plans have been completed for the event.

Pine Bluff Youth Released Under Bond

PINE BLUFF, April 23.—(P)—Rorsey Duncan, member of a prominent Pine Bluff family, was released today on a $5,000 bond after he spent nearly 24 hours in the Jefferson county jail here in connection with an alleged $5,000 slot machine theft. Duncan was taken into custody yesterday by sheriff Garland Brooster, at the end of a week's search. He was held until today without bail. Officers charged he robbed 47 slot machines three weeks ago.

NO PEACE FOR HIM

Lady: Is my husband's ear-trumpet ready yet? Shopman: No, I said it would not be ready until tomorrow. Do you want it specially today? Lady: Yes, I want to quarrel with him.—Nebelspalter, Zurich.

NEW GRAND TODAY AND FRIDAY

WILL ROGERS —IN— "They Had to See Paris" ALL TALK—FUN OTHER FEATURES ADMISSION Matinee 10c & 25c Night 10c-35c

MOM'N POP

The Pangs of Hunger

Lindbergh to Open Air Mail Service

Will Inaugurate Route Between U. S. and Buenos Aires

NEW YORK, April 23.—(P)—Col. Charles Lindbergh, fresh from his record-breaking cross country flight, will take off Sunday morning from Havana Cuba for Cristobal Canal Zone in a dawn-to-dusk flight inaugurating the new seven-day mail service between the United States and Buenos Aires.

Colonel Lindbergh will take off Saturday afternoon from Miami in a regular plane of Pan-American Airways, and will spend the night in Havana. He will take off from there at 6 a. m. Sunday, bound across the Caribbean sea for Cape Guacra a Dios, in Honduras, then to Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, an dthen to Cristobal, Panama Canal Zone, where he expects to land at 6 p. m., thus covering a distance of 1,200 miles in 12 hours.

The plane, in addition to the usual mails, will carry a quantity of air mail bearing the first cachet with letters of felicitations from government and diplomatic officials in Washington to officials in cities and countries of South America.

It is expected that a licensed radio operator and probably an official of Pan-American Airways will accompany the colonel.

pany the colonel. So far as is now known, Mrs. Lindbergh will not make the flight.

The mail to be carried by Colonel Lindbergh will leave New York by air mail from Newark, N. J., at 9:10 p. m. Friday. Colonel Lindbergh will pick it up at 1:45 p. m. Saturday and it will be in Buenos Aires at 3:40 p. m. on the following Friday.

At Cristobal Colonel Lindbergh will turn the mail over to the regular Pan-American Grace Airways planes.

MRS. LINDBERGH TO ENTER HOSPITAL

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., April 23.—Little Mrs. Anne Morrow Lindbergh, who beat the fast-flying stork when she flew here from California with her famous husband Sunday, went about Englewood today on a round of her last visits to friends before she enters Fifth Avenue Hospital in New York city next week for the birth of a little Lindbergh. She was in excellent spirits, those close to the family reported in confirming announcement that she will enter the hospital April 25.

Meanwhile, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, soon to be a father, transacted business in New York while his 450-horsepower Lockheed-Sirius plane, in which he flew here from Glendale, Cal., in 14 hours, 23 minutes and 27 seconds, made what is probably the slowest trip in its history. A tractor towed it at the rate of about four miles an hour from Field No. 1 to Field No. 2 at Roosevelt Field, L. I., with about 150 awed spectators following it.

STAMPS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walton of North Carolina visited Mrs. N. Sanders last week.

Miss Nita Collins of Spring Hill was the week end guest of Mrs. J. S. Moorman.

Edwin Keith and Burton Moore of University of Arkansas, were home for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Webster were in Minden, La., Sunday visiting their son William Webster and wife.

Rudolph Johnson from Camden visited his mother Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dye, Briner and Louise Thomas of Houston, Tex., were the guests of their mother, Mrs. J. A. Thomas, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strange and mother, Mrs. T. N. Strange were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davis in Minden, La., Mrs. Strange remained over to spend a few days this week.

WARD & SON
"We've got it!"
The leading druggists
Phone 62

French-fried potatoes —as quick as broiling a steak

COOKING SCHOOL NOTE By Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig
In the cooking school I conducted under the auspices of The Hope Star recently, I stressed modern methods of cooking. Naturally, then, I use and recommend CRISCO—for it's a modern Shortening. Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig.

BIG BARGAINS IN SPRING NEEDS

Two Great Work Shirt Values

Coat Style
95c

The utmost in work shirt satisfaction! Sturdy, long-wearing blue chambray... generously cut for freedom and comfort.

Closed Front Style
89c

A rare buy indeed! Fine, long wearing blue chambray shirts generously cut for comfort whether you're stooping, sitting or standing erect. A real saving.

Look! Special Work Shoe Bargain!

The more you know about shoes, the quicker you'll buy from this special group. Tough, flexible leather uppers assure comfort as well as unbeatable wear. Rubber composition soles and rubber heels will stand up under the hardest usage you give them!

$1.89

Save On Paint Supplies!

Turpentine
$1.00 Gal.

Our Turpentine is 100 per cent pure. Buy at Ward's! Our prices are lowest!

Brushes
65c

Ward-Set bristles are set in Bakelite—they can't come out! Amazing Brush values!

House Paint
Spreads well—looks well—wears well. 1 gal. covers 250 sq. ft. Gal., $2.43

Co-Var Varnish
It Stains and Varnishes in a Single Coat GAL $2.25

Flat Wall Paint
Gives a colorful, washable, non-glaring velvet finish. Use it! Gal., $2.10

Liquid Enamel
New color for your home! Flows on easily—any one can use it! $2.48 Gal.

Big Savings on Garden Tools

Garden Hoes
49c

These Garden Hoes of standard quality have bright finish 6 1/2-inch blades.

Garden Rakes
$1.05

The teeth, head and shank are forged from one piece of steel. Fine value!

Lawn Mowers
$7.95

tuns quietly and easily, 14"ATT Roller Bearings are self-oiling and self-cleaning.

Garden Sets
37c

Two trowels and one weeder in a set. Small, light tools for flower beds.

MONTGOMERY WARD & Co.

Phone 930 212 East Second

TOMORROW SATURDAY

Height of Thrills and Daring!
Breath-Taking Action in the Cloak—Duty and Love Conflict! Which Wins?

CHARLES (BUDDY) ROGERS
"YOUNG EAGLES"
A Paramount Picture

LAST TIMES TODAY

Ronald Colman
—IN—
"CONDEMNED"
ADDED
ON THE STAGE
Stamps and His
All Star Quartet

SAENGER
Home of Paramount Pictures

Hope Star

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

BY STAR PUBLISHING COMPANY
217 South Main Street
Hope, Arkansas

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Subscription Rates
(Always Payable in Advance)

By city carrier, per month $5.00; six months $27.50; one year $50.00. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and LaFayette counties, $3.00 per year; elsewhere $3.00.

Member of The Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of reproduction of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

"The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, to widely disseminate advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."—Col. McCormick.

The Star's Platform

CITY

Apply the revenues of the municipal power plant to develop the industrial and social resources of Hope.
More city pavement in 1980, and improved sanitary conditions in the alleys and business backyards.
Support the Chamber of Commerce.

COUNTY

A county highway program providing for the construction of a minimum amount of all-weather road each year, to gradually reduce the dirt road mileage.
Political and economic support for every scientific agricultural program which offers practical benefits to Hempstead county's greatest industry.
Encourage farmer organizations, believing that co-operative effort is as practical in the country as it is in town.

STATE

Continued progress on the state highway program.
Efficient tax reform, and a more efficient government through the budget system of expenditures.
Free Arkansas from the cattle tick.

Change Isn't Over

If you think that the upheaval which mechanical and industrial inventions and discoveries put into human life is over, you may be in for a rude awakening during the next decade or so.

Dr. Gus Dyer, professor of political economy at Vanderbilt University, believes that the upheaval is going to work even more changes in the future than it has in the past. Addressing the Executive Club of Chicago the other day, he unburdened himself as follows:
"What is going on now is the greatest revolutionary force the world has ever seen. What has been accomplished in 20 years by gas and electricity is a miracle. It has destroyed isolation. It has brought all America out on the great highways of life."

"It is taking everything worth seeing and hearing from the cities and carrying it to remote sections. Electricity will pump your water, cook your dinner, freeze your ice cream and sing to you."

"It is destroying the reasons why people should go to the cities to live. Industries are going back to the country and the small town. The cities have the greatest fight they ever had if they are to hold their places under the new order. The small place has advantages for industry that the city can hardly meet."

"The cities have got to make a readjustment, recognize a new force. They have got to watch taxes. Business men want to escape interference with freedom of contract. They cannot work under unwarranted restrictions. The competition is between 10,000 workers in Kentucky and 10,000 workers in Iowa. That group lives which gives the best service at the smallest cost."

"It is a complete dethronement for capital as dominant in business. Capital is now a menial servant. A man with brains can get all the capital he wants."

If Dr. Dyer is correct, some population shifts even more startling than those of the past 25 years are in store for the near future. His prophecy has an exciting ring about it. Whether or not he is correct in detail, he is obviously correct in stating that the era of changes is by no means over. Indeed, it seems more likely that it has hardly begun.

About Time For Action

THE St. Lawrence waterway proposal, like the poor, seems to be always with us. It has a way of lying idle for a time only to pop back into the news and it is safe to predict that the proposition will refuse to die until some final, definite action is taken.

Just now the thing is coming into discussion anew because of two other waterway developments; the lakes-to-the-gulf project, and the proposal that the federal government take over and deepen the New York barge canal, which connects the Great Lakes with the Hudson river.

Both of these developments are more or less worthy, particularly the lakes-to-the-gulf waterway; but it is a bit hard to see why either should be allowed to interfere with the St. Lawrence proposition.

The gulf waterway is almost an accomplished fact right now. Only a small amount of work remains to be done to link Chicago with New Orleans by a waterway that will accommodate heavy barge traffic. The waterway is needed and should be completed quickly. But the New York canal is something else.

At vast expense, New York not long ago rehabilitated the old Erie canal, to provide barge communication between the middle west and the east. The canal is used now, but not on a very large scale. The current proposal is that the federal government take it over, spend millions of dollars to deepen and otherwise improve it, and thus stimulate an extension of traffic on it.

In a way this is a sound proposal. But certain interests that do not like the St. Lawrence plan seem to be backing this plan in the hope that it will sidetrack the St. Lawrence plan permanently. And there is really no comparison between the two waterways on any practical basis.

The St. Lawrence waterway is not planned as a barge canal. It is intended to permit ocean-going ships to sail directly to Great Lakes ports. It would give the middle west direct, uninterrupted trade routes to all foreign markets. The New York canal, on the other hand, is designed only for barge traffic. To make a real ship canal out of it would cost something like four times as much as the St. Lawrence project—and would, in addition, vastly increase the congestion in the already congested port of New York.

The St. Lawrence proposition needs a little action. It is to be hoped that no side issues will be allowed to get in its way.

Giving Him a "Screen Test"

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

BARBS

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—The Republicans gave out a list showing the number of times Democratic senators had voted for protection during the tariff bill battle and it was found that Senator John Benjamin Kendrick of Wyoming was cast in the role of Abou ben-Adhem.

Kendrick had voted for an increase in tariff rates exactly 63 times and there was no close second. Broussard of Louisiana came next with 39. (Incidentally, he ran ahead of Kendrick in the number of his votes against decreases.) Those 63 votes of Kendrick seemed to call for an explanation.

"Did I vote for more raises than anybody else?" asked Kendrick as your correspondent tickled him in the ribs with a knowing leer. "Well, I'm proud of it!"

Looks Out for Wyoming

The senator is an old-time cattleman and owns one of the largest range ranches in the west. He is now 72 years of age. It was he who first raised the Teapot Dome issue in the Senate when independent oil operators urged him to look into the Sinclair lease.

Wyoming benefits from the tariff bills, especially through such of her important industries as wool, beet sugar, mutton and other meat products. But Kendrick was not one of those Democrats who stood like a cement rampart against most of the increases and meted promptly when any local industry was involved. He's just an out-and-out protectionist.

"The nation has adopted protection as an economic policy," he says, "and the only question left is how its benefits are to be distributed. That's all that interests me. I don't like the attitude of those men who make the sky the limit or their local products and deny protection for the rest of the country. That shows an extremely provincial frame of mind."

"And I've nothing in common with the man who criticizes an other for voting his convictions in a tariff measure. I can do that without consulting anyone and I voted for industrial as well as agricultural rates when I thought they were justified. The only thing I opposed was the raising of rates for the benefit of monopolies."

Kendrick voted against the cement duty and for the duty on bricks because he thought the cement price was controlled, whereas the making of bricks was in the hands of thousands of individual makers. He voted against the aluminum tariff boost because he felt that aluminum products were handled by a closed corporation. But he voted against very few increases.

He points out that there are thousands of rates in a tariff bill and no man can be informed as to all of them. He had to vote with such information as he had. He denies being in on any of the trading that went on, explaining his change of vote on two or three measures by saying that he had remained open to persuasion by new evidence. The independent oil people, he thought, came along with a fine argument against cheap oil importations by the biggest corporations.

"I consider myself just as good a Democrat as anyone here," he says. "There are others who agree with me about protection."

NOT A CHANCE

Clerk: I'm taking a correspondence course to get more money, sir.
Boss: Ah, too bad! I'm taking one to reduce expenses.—Searboro Post, England.

News of Other Days

From the Files of the Star

25 YEARS AGO

Dr. Daly, a prominent physician of Nashville, was in the city yesterday on route to Galveston, Texas.
R. C. Stuart, of Magnolia, was registered at the Hotel Barlow yesterday.

Miss Lillian Leslie left this morning for a visit to relatives at DeQueen. Fred Smith, of Jakajones, spent yesterday in our city and will return home today.

Capt. J. H. Black attended the National Good Road convention at Texarkana yesterday.

10 YEARS AGO

Miss Thelma Drake, of Texarkana, is visiting friends here.
Mrs. Berley Ramage, of Nashville, is the guest of Mrs. S. B. Dildy.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson, of Columbus, were Hope visitors yesterday.

Mrs. Gerthy Sain, of Nashville, was a guest of relatives here yesterday.
Edward Anderson, of Homan, is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Anderson.

Miss Baby Love, of Stamps, is visiting in this city the guest of Miss Bernice Dalton.

Miss Verna Lee Dildy is entertaining as a guest Miss Virginia Risinger, of Nashville.

Mrs. Ben K. Douglas came in from the farm near Powers yesterday for a few hours shopping.

Miss Mary Grissold, of Louisville, came over Thursday for a visit with Miss Dorothy McRae.

Miss Louise Coats, of Ashdown, is spending the week with Miss Faye Cresnoe.

Mrs. Roy Berry and son, Charles, of Foreman, has been visiting relatives and friends here the past few days.

Chinese immigration into the Philippines decreased about 10 per cent in 1929, the bureau of customs reported.

REVERSED

First Negro Lady: Your eldest son is a bad lot.
Second Negro Lady: Yes, I always said he was the white sheep of the family.—Lustige Kolner. Zeitung, Cologne.

Ruins of Cells Where 300 Died

This charred mass of tangled wreckage was all that was left of a section of the cell house at Ohio State Penitentiary after the disastrous fire in which more than 300 convicts were burned to death when trapped behind the bars. Note the twisted steel grating that prevented the prisoners' escape.

Blossom Queen

Loveliest blossom in Michigan's bouquet of beauties is Cecilia Eisenhart, above. She was chosen 1930 Michigan Blossom Queen in a contest with 23 other beauties and will reign at the annual blossom festival, at Benton Harbor, May 4 to 11. She's 20 and a brunette.

Broncho Tactics of Car Hurt Five

FRESNO, Cal., April 23.—Five young automobilists of Selma, Cal., nursed bruises and minor cuts, the results of a new rumble-seat roadster's imitation of a bucking broncho. The automobile with its burden of youth was traveling some 50 miles or so an hour down the Academy road near the Sierra Nevada foothills when it struck a slight sand ridge. The car nimbly danced a few mad capers until it had flung all its occupants into the road.

It then dashed through a rail fence and struck out for the wide, open spaces. It circled a mile or so through a vast grain field, but chugged to a halt when it attempted to climb a mountain.

Old Camden Hotel Destroyed by Fire

CAMDEN, April 23.—The Lanier hotel on South Adams street, formerly the W. Woods home and a landmark of the city, was destroyed by fire of unknown origin Tuesday night. The building, a two-story frame structure, burned quickly and only heroic efforts of firemen prevented the blaze from spreading to the Orlando hotel, just north of the Lanier. Loss was estimated at $10,000 and was partially covered by insurance.

Votes in Election Cost City $2 Each

TEXARKANA, Tex., April 24.—(AP)—Every vote cast in the recent general municipal election cost the city of Texarkana, Tex., more than $2, according to E. W. Goldbold, city auditor, who has just completed his report. The canvass showed 58 votes were cast, while expenses of conducting the election were about $125.

LOTS OF SERVICE
"How did you like my dress, Tom? Dad got it for my eighteenth birthday."
"Certainly worn well, hasn't it?"
—Tit-Bits.

WOULD BE FATAL
Wife: Do you think of me all the time?
Husband: Not at street crossings, darling.—Answers.

Daily Cross-word Puzzle

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS	DOWN
1. Antler of an antelope	1. Placid
2. Sheep's tail	2. Ravine
3. Dandelion	3. Oriole
4. Purred or sang aloud	4. Smug
5. Lamb's head	5. All
6. President in 1917	6. Tens
7. Propelled one's self in water	7. Tah
8. Scramped linen	8. Ops
9. Bore	9. Rot
10. Sound of a sheep	10. Liens
11. Bore	11. Deploy
12. Sound of a sheep	12. Ferret
13. Bore	13. Tra
14. Sound of a sheep	14. De
15. Bore	15. Sion
16. Sound of a sheep	16. Ann
17. Bore	17. Anew
18. Sound of a sheep	18. Pall
19. Bore	19. Rat
20. Sound of a sheep	20. Nora
21. Bore	21. Obse
22. Sound of a sheep	22. Tremor
23. Bore	23. Relent
24. Sound of a sheep	24. Serene
25. Bore	25. Holes

1. God for whom Tuesday is named
2. Volcano in Sicily
3. Bottom of the foot
4. To the inside
5. Wing
6. Nickname of Ferdinand II.
7. Fly aloft
8. Took a rest
9. Tides
10. Volcano in Sicily
11. Stupid person
12. Tides
13. Wing
14. Nickname of Ferdinand II.
15. Fly aloft
16. Took a rest
17. Tides
18. Volcano in Sicily
19. Stupid person
20. Tides
21. Wing
22. Nickname of Ferdinand II.
23. Fly aloft
24. Took a rest
25. Tides

PROTECTION
"Jim's going to take out a fire insurance policy for himself."
"You mean life insurance."
"No, I mean fire. It's been fired three times in the last six weeks."
—Pete Mele, Paris.

J.C. PENNEY CO. INC.
DEPARTMENT STORE
Phone 484 West Second St.

Men's Needs
Economically Priced
for Now—and Summer
Days Ahead!

Tropical Suits
Palm Beach and Wrinkleproof Cloth
$13.75

Be good to yourself! Put your heavier weight clothes in moth balls and purchase one of these Palm Beach or Wrinkleproof suits for summer days ahead.

The fabrics are light in weight but of sturdy quality to stand plenty of wear.

Shirts and Shorts
49c each
Shirts are of knitted cotton, plain white or rayon striped. Shorts are of rayon or broadcloth—in many patterns.

Men's and Young Men's Trousers
Beach Cloth Gabardines Tropical Worsteds
$2.98 to $5.90

The fashionable and comfortable dress pants for cool-summer wear. Plain colors and stripes. All sizes.

You thrill to new hat comfort under a
Solar Straw
Slightly swaggy . . . and so soft . . . this zephyr-weight patent Milant Under the hottest sun, the Solar Straw is cool, in three shades . . . natural, sand, gray.
$1.98

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

Air Circus For Prescott Sunday
Parachute Jumper and Army Planes To Feature

PRESCOTT, April 23.—An air exhibition will be staged in Prescott, next Sunday April 27 by the Command-Air Flying Service of Little Rock, with the 154th Observation Squadron, Arkansas National Guard, assisting.

The exhibition will be given on the Paul farm, three miles from Prescott on the Washington road, and the proceeds will be used to develop an airport for Prescott on that farm. Arrangements for the exhibition are being made local people interested in aviation.

The feature of the air show will be a jump from a mile-high plane by Shorty Hines, veteran parachute jumper who will make his 971st hop from a plane here Sunday. He will fall 750 feet before he opens his parachute, and will endeavor to make a spot landing in full view of the crowd on the field.

Another feature of the afternoon's program will be the three Douglas bombing planes of the national guard. The National Guard flyers have been attracting considerable attention by their formation and stunt flying in various air circuses in the state recently, and always provide plenty of thrills for the crowds. The big bombing planes themselves will be objects of interest to people of this section as they rarely get an opportunity to get a close view of them.

John's Evangelical Lutheran church parochial school here, who has lived through two yellow fever epidemics, many floods and three wars.

"The even tenor of my life has been undisturbed. Of all my six children and many grandchildren, not one has died. There has been nothing spectacular in my life."

But as he reminisced, a monumental goodness began to appear. It showed itself as the guiding principle of this oft-voiced man with the faded blue eyes.

His parents, German immigrants, scraped up enough money to send him to school six years in Illinois. He began teaching in Indiana at 19, to repay them, and to give to others what he had learned himself.

For two years he taught there, then returned to New Orleans. He remembers the two great yellow fever epidemics, and the Spanish-American war as incidents of unhappiness through which he passed unscathed.

As for the rest, the 51 years of teaching here are "nothing," he said.

"I give my pupils all I know, he explained. "When the end of the term comes, I am very tired. But when August comes I am impatient to be in again. I am happy in my work."

PROTESTING HIMSELF

"Henry, I wish you had better manners. I noticed you dusted the chair at Mrs. Bink's house before you sat down, and her little son was watching you."

"Yes, and I was watching him, too. I'm too old a fish to be caught on a bent pin."—Tit-Bits.

Terms of Treaty Defined By Reed
Agreement Fair to All and Victory for None

WASHINGTON, April 23.—(AP)—Senator David A. Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, delegate to the London naval conference, said in a radio address from London, that the members of the American delegation were coming home with the arm conviction that their countrymen will approve what has been done in America's name at the conference.

His address, made public by the State Department, was broadcast over the National Broadcasting Company network.

Senator Reed said that no country would win a victory in the conference. "The treaty represents a victory for no one nation," he said, "but rather an honorable and reasonable arrangement which is fair to everyone."

He said that in the future Great Britain and the United States, as a result of the treaty, would stand upon an equality. American relations with Japan, he said, were now proved "friendly in the extreme."

"Japan and America have today," said the senator, "given tangible evidences of friendship which far exceed in value all of the oratory that was ever uttered."

Senator Reed said the agreement goes further than any agreement ever heretofore made between the leading nations of the world.

This new honey syrup
So delicious with hot Biscuits

Staley's
SYRUPS

YOU'll discover an entirely new and delightful flavor when you serve Staley's Honey Flavored Syrup with hot biscuits. There's a luscious honey taste that tempts the appetite. And it's so inexpensive, too.

Buy a can of Staley's Syrup at your grocer's today... ask for the Honey Flavored.

STALEY SALES CORPORATION
Decatur, Illinois

Cement Worker Casts Stone for Own Grave

STREETSVILLE, Ont., April 23.—(UP)—Robert Bond, 81-year-old cement block manufacturer, is ready for the end of his days, having completed a large concrete tombstone which is to cover his mother's grave and his own after his death.

Only one thing bothers Bond now. That is the question of whose hand shall carve in the stone the date of his death.

Bond, who has worked with cement for 30 years, experimented until he discovered the mixture which would give him precisely the right texture of cement for his tombstone.

Catholic Priest In Soviet Prison

MOSCOW, April 23.—A Catholic priest, Father Emanuel Makelko, of the village of Greenthal near Mariupol, has been sentenced to seven years' imprisonment on charges of conducting counter-revolutionary propaganda.

At a public trial witnesses testified that the priest under guise of religious sermons actually advised against joining the agrarian collectives and opposed other Soviet policies.

After the completion of the prison term, according to the verdict, the priest will be exiled to Siberia for 5 additional years.

Mrs. H. S. Caulfield, wife of the governor of Missouri is weaving a picture of the state capitol and the governor's mansion into a rag rug.

Spends 57 Years In Same School
Is Tired at End of Term But Rested By August

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—Fifty-one years of teaching in one school have taught John Henry Schoenhardt happiness in the school of life.

"God has been good to me," said the 72 year old teacher in the St.

QUICK RESULTS

At LOW cost with Hope Star Want Ads

More than twelve thousand people in the Hope trade territory read The Hope Star. Possibly some of them want to buy the very thing for which you no longer have any need.

A refrigerator, a victrola or radio, farm implements, dogs, cows. If you have any of these you could no doubt find a buyer in the Hope Star want-ad columns. Try this special offer, and see what quick results you get. Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.

Here's How: Write your Ad on the blank below. Seventeen words or less will be run six days for $1.00. Send it to us by mail or bring it with a One Dollar Bill and we will do the rest. If more than seventeen words are needed add 6c for each additional word.

HOPE STAR, Hope, Arkansas
Gentlemen: Attached please find $1.00, for which please publish the want ad below for six times.

TEAR OFF HERE

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15
16	17

TEAR OFF HERE

"And O'er His Heart A SHADOW FELL,"
[Edgar Allan Poe, 1809-1849]

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*
By refraining from over-indulgence

Men who would keep that trim, proper form, women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

*Be Moderate!... Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Saturday night, over a coast-to-coast network of the N. B. C.

A PAGE of SPORTS NEWS

LOOKS SLIDES

by William Braucher

What are Grimes? Barney Dreyfuss has traded Grimes to the Pirates. And we are wondering what's the matter with Grimes?

Grimes, a ball player usually called "Doc," the habit of being a "slide" is well known. The inhabitants of the town of Grimes, however, are not so sure of it. Grimes, at least John McGraw, remember, was not so sure.

McGraw had acquired Grimes in 1927. In a three-out-trade deal, McGraw traded Grimes to the Pirates for the Pirates' first baseman, Fred Clarke.

That Good Year

He did have that good year. In 1927, Grimes was batting .327. At the end of 1927, McGraw figured that the good year was over and done with, and how about this "slide" pitcher? Mr. McGraw called Mr. Dreyfuss and asked him to buy Grimes for the Pirates. Grimes did nothing but have two more years that were among the best in his career. Toward the middle of the season, last year, however, Grimes was "slid" to the Pirates.

Now Barney Dreyfuss has traded Grimes to the Pirates. Is there something the matter with Grimes?

The Grimes Case
BARNEY DREYFUSS hasn't always done so well on trades. He did in the Grimes-Alldridge deal, but there are a couple of managers in both leagues who wouldn't trade their bat boys to Barney for Pie Traynor. Pie would be too likely to show up.

With both arms and legs to plaster cast, it will be remembered that Freddie Robble sent Mr. Dreyfuss Jesse Petty in a trade for Glenn Wright. And last spring Wright turned up with his classical circus shoulder, being of no service to the Robins all year. Meanwhile Jesse was winning 11 and losing 10 for the Pirates. Wright seems to be his old self this year, however, and Freddie Robble may yet enjoy the last cookie.

Barney did make a classical misplay on Hazen Cuyler, however, the outfielder he sent to the Cubs for Earl Adams and Floyd Scott. Adams failed to hit and finally was sold to St. Louis. Cuyler played into stardom.

One of Barney's best remembered misplays some years ago was the purchase of Marty O'Done, the $22,500 lemon.

Got Even With John

He once threatened to sue John McGraw for shouting at him. "Hey, Barney," but he made up for that later on when he sent McGraw Alldridge for Grimes. Now he has sent Grimes to the Pirates, which is a ball team in the National League managed by Bill McKechnie. Perhaps you can remember that McKechnie once managed Mr. Dreyfuss' team and they disagreed about something. We are just wondering how that Grimes deal is going to turn out.

Dreyfuss once asked for waivers on one John Miljus, and finally Cleveland claimed him—at least the Cleveland office claimed him. And when it came time to pay for John, the waiver discovery was made by Billy Evans that it would be necessary to send Mr. Dreyfuss $16,500 for Mr. Miljus. Judge Landis ruled Cleveland had to take John at that figure. And John never was a pennant for the Cleveland ball club, no, not one.

Knoxville Seeks Mobile Franchise

Free Park and Sunday Games to Be Offered Hamilton

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 24.—(P)—City officials and civic leaders will meet today with Jimmy Hamilton, president-manager of the Mobile club of the Southern association, and make a bid for transfer of the franchise here.

The city has offered to give Hamilton a free lease on the ball park, and City Council, according to Councilman W. H. Smith, is ready to vote for Sunday baseball when Hamilton gives assurance of a transfer.

Hamilton is expected to gather all data on what Knoxville has to offer the Southern Association club.

A BRIGHT LAD

Business Man: Do you think you know enough to be useful in this office?

Boy: Know enough? Why, I left my last place because the boss and I knew too much.—Answers.

Spitballer Passing From Coast Circuit

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—(P)—From the baseball picture of the Pacific Coast league, slowly but surely is passing from the ranks of hurlers the spitball artist.

This fact was revealed when the managers of the various clubs, complying with rules of the circuit, registered with President Harry A. Williams the moundmen who will include in their pitching repertoire the moist ball delivery.

Only three were named; three less than a season ago. Of these, Frank Shellenback, Hollywood, leads the list as the most effective. The Star's hurling expert turned in a record of 26 victories against an even dozen defeats last season for a .684 average.

Ray Keating and Al Gould, both with Sacramento, Cal., are the other two. Keating won 12 and lost 11 games while Gould was less fortunate, winning 10 against 18 defeats.

The latest of the old school to pass from the loop were Doc Crandall and Harry Krause, both of whom saw service last year. Russell "Baz" Arlett, Oakland, still stands registered as a spitball pitcher, but he is now an outfielder and first baseman by profession. Vean Gregg retired from the list in 1928.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Acrobatic Airplane Shows Off

NEA San Francisco Bureau
This acrobatic airplane, with Leo Nomis, stunt flyer, at the controls, decided to put on a show of its own at the Sacramento, Calif., airport, and did a "nose stand" when landing. Nomis is seen climbing out of the cockpit while attendants hold the wings. Half an hour later, a new propeller had been put in place and the plane was entered in a race.

BODCAW NO. 1

We are very sorry to say that Mrs. C. L. Mitchell is yet seriously ill at the Josephine hospital at Hope.

Rev. Tom Middlebrooks filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday and delivered two fine sermons.

Bobby Nell Martin entertained a number of little folks with an Easter egg hunt Sunday afternoon which was enjoyed very much. Those present were: Alvis, Louise and Erma Fuller, Marie Mullins, A. G. Lindell and Denver Lee Fuller of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell, motored to Nashville Saturday, to visit their son, Chester and wife.

BAD BUSINESS

Doctor: And, above all things, avoid crowds.
Absent-Minded Patient: If you insist upon that, doctor, it's going to interfere seriously with my business. You see, I'm a pickpocket.—The Humorist.

The Standings

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

Clubs	W.	L.	Pc.
Chattanooga	5	1	.333
Memphis	6	2	.357
Birmingham	6	2	.667
Mobile	5	4	.555
New Orleans	4	5	.444
Little Rock	3	6	.333
Nashville	2	6	.250
Atlanta	1	8	.111

Yesterday's Result

Little Rock 3, Chattanooga 6.
Mobile 12, Atlanta 4.
Birmingham 7, New Orleans 5.
Memphis-Nashville postponed, cold weather.

Games Today

Little Rock at Nashville.
New Orleans at Atlanta.
Mobile at Birmingham.
Memphis at Chattanooga.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Clubs	W.	L.	Pc.
Philadelphia	4	1	.286
Chicago	3	1	.750
Washington	3	2	.611
Cleveland	3	3	.500
St. Louis	3	3	.500
Boston	3	5	.375
New York	0	5	.000

Yesterday's Result

St. Louis 5, Detroit 1.

Other games postponed, cold weather.

Games Today

Detroit at St. Louis.
Chicago at Cleveland.
Boston at Washington.
Philadelphia at New York.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Clubs	W.	L.	Pc.
New York	4	0	1.000
Pittsburgh	5	1	.833
Chicago	5	4	.555
Boston	2	2	.500
Philadelphia	3	3	.500
St. Louis	3	3	.500
Cincinnati	2	5	.286
Brooklyn	1	5	.167

Yesterday's Result

Philadelphia 16, Brooklyn 15.
Chicago 6, St. Louis 5.
Other games postponed, cold weather.

Games Today

New York at Boston.
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
St. Louis at Chicago.

TEXAS LEAGUE

Clubs	W.	L.	Pc.
Beaumont	10	4	.714
Houston	9	6	.600
Shreveport	8	6	.571
Wichita Falls	8	6	.571
Dallas	6	8	.429
Fort Worth	6	8	.429
San Antonio	5	9	.357
Waco	4	10	.333

Yesterday's Result

Fort Worth 7, Shreveport 1.
Houston 10, San Antonio 2.
Beaumont 17, Waco 4.
Wichita Falls 7, Dallas 6.

STAMPS

Vance Strange, student at Tulane University, spent Sunday and Monday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Stronge.

Harry Burnette and Harold Cade, students of S. M. U., spent the spring holidays with home folks.

Miss Fairy Baker of Little Rock and Mary Lou Baker of Ada, Oklahoma, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bradley.

Frank Shewmako student of University of Arkansas is home for a while on account of illness.

Dr. and Mrs. Hammond of Bradley were the guests of Mrs. Devone Puska Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Devone Puska entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Norma Claire's, fifth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Jess Hamlin and Mrs. Cecil Kelly assisted in the umes and the serving of delicious ice cream and angel food cake. The little guests were: Betty Sue Hamlin, Harold Hamlin, John Eaton, Dephene Leslie, Dorothy Bess Strange, Robert Baker, Neil Wanda Jean Monahan, Genia Elsie Kelly, Victor Craine, George Eaton, Martha Jean Harper, Melba Lee Nell, James Tatum, Martha Julia Hamlin, Carey Johnson, Jr., Nell Stewart, June Cross, Charles Cross, Clay Stewart, Dorothy Jean Rogers, Cecile Kelly, Carolyn Loudardale.

He's Gone

By Blooser

Colman Surpasses Self in New Talkie

When Ronald Colman's first all talking picture, "Bulldog Drummond," shown, it did not seem humanly possible to improve on this great production, and yet in his newest picture, "Condemned," which plays last time today at the Saenger theatre, Ronald Colman has reached still new heights of artistry and dramatic savoir faire.

Once again Colman is seen as the romantic, yet loquacious lover, among settings the like of which never have been seen on any screen before. In "Condemned," he is seen as a French pickpocket, who is deported to the notorious French penal colony, Devil's Island.

Here are shown the tortures inflicted on the inmates, the drama of prison life, and the seething unrest ever present among the convicts.

It is in these settings that Ronald Colman, as the fearless renegade, becomes infatuated with the warden's wife, played by Miss Ann Harding. Their resolution to escape from their grim surroundings, the trials and tribulations which they are forced to undergo when the prison officials have discovered their absence brings the picture to a climatic conclusion.

In this thrilling all-talking romance which was adapted from Blair Niles' biography of an unknown convict, Mr. Colman is supported by Miss Ann Harding, of stage fame, Mr. Dudley Digges, of the Theatre Guild, and Mr. Louis Wolheim, of both stage and screen fame.

SPRINGHILL

Our beautiful Easter Sunday was enjoyed by all, most especially the young folks. It seemed everyone had the Easter spirit, there was a program rendered at the Methodist church at 10 o'clock, by the two Sunday schools of this place which was interesting to all who attended, then an inspiring Easter sermon at 11 o'clock by Brother Bearden.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill and Mr. and Mrs. John Yocom motored to El Dorado Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Turner spent Sunday in Washington, guests of E. T. Turner and wife.

Mrs. Rosa Moses and Mrs. Asberry went to Hope Tuesday with Mrs. Baker and spent a pleasant day.

There was an egg hunt and dinner on the ground at the home of Abigail Hamilton's Sunday, there were people from far and near, and the kiddies and boys and girls had about 200 eggs to search for, the dinner was delicious.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Grisham and son Monroe and wife were from Ross-Town Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Foster.

Ben Sasser and wife and little son, James, of Stamps, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Momen.

After Sunday school Sunday afternoon the crowd went home with Mr. and Mrs. Hones and enjoyed an egg hunt in the grove near his home.

Mrs. Miria Brown and children spent Monday with Mrs. Hugh Gomer. Fishing and strawberry picking is the order of the day, and rain, rain, we need a rain.

MEIROSE

The Easter egg hunt given by Miss Winford Wise, Sunday evening was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wright of Evening Shade spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Wise and family.

The friends of V. C. Roth will be glad to know that he is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Mullens made a business trip to Oak Grove, Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wise were called to the bedside of Grandma Arnold, of Center Point, Monday.

Mrs. A. L. Caudle spent Sunday with Mrs. Dora Jackson of Oak Grove.

The egg hunt at the church was enjoyed by all the children who attended.

Don't forget Sunday school at this place every Sunday morning at 9:45.

The big hearted boxing fans, weary of sordid ring fiascos, should get a few breaks this summer since they are promised battles between Sammy Mandell and Al Singer, Jimmy McLarnin and Jackie Fields and Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey.

NEW YORK, April 23.—(P)—If a few good fights is what the boxing game needs, it may be in a healthy condition before the summer is over.

Three major championships probably will be decided within the next few months and all of the battles stand out as exceptionally promising.

Sammy Mandell defends his lightweight crown in a May meeting with Al Singer; Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling fight in June for first claim on the heavyweight throne, and and Jackie Fields either will accept a battle with Jimmy McLarnin with Jackie's welterweight title at stake or will have to do some tall explaining to the boxing powers.

At this stage of the program the Mandell-Singer and Fields-McLarnin scraps seem to be creating more interest in New York than the Schmeling-Sharkey thing. Eight months ago this one heavyweight bout stood out as the most attractive project since Jack Dempsey quit. What happened to Sharkey at Miami seems to have removed some of the attractive features of the engagement, so the boxing critics say.

It wouldn't surprise the metropolitan experts if the challengers, seeking to dethrone Fields and Mandell, went into the ring as the favorites.

McLarnin, who has few equals as a perfect functioning fighting machine is backed by a convincing string of victories and has proved himself to be a knockout puncher. He should have a psychological advantage over Fields because Jimmy stopped Jackie in two rounds back in 1925 when they were fighting as featherweights.

Singer has youth, speed and punching ability to match Mandell's greater ring experience. Sammy is one of the smartest men to top the lightweight division but his recent fights indicate that his legs are slowing up. This would throw a tremendous burden on that noted Mandell left as his main weapon to carry him through the championship route of 15-rounds.

Kiddies Club

If any of our members have had birthdays this past week and don't find their name listed, better phone or write me right away as The Hope Star does not want any of our members to miss their birthday present.

Happy birthdays to our members this week will be:

Gable Schooley, Clyde Browning, Bill Tom, Bundy, Marie Kirks, Charline Hutson, Lois Lamb, Claudia Whitworth.

Get ready for the big show this Saturday. It is going to be the best Kiddie show ever put on. Buddy Rogers sure does tricks in an airplane in this picture "Young Eagles" you are going to see. Don't forget there are going to be some real live actors on the stage to do a lot of things for your amusement. If you can get your mama or papa to come with you to your show we will let them in for 25 cents but they must be along with a club member wearing their button.

HOLLY SPRINGS

Dry weather is all the talk here and really a good rain would be greatly appreciated. The farmers are

666 Tablets

Believes a Headache or Neuralgia in 30 minutes, checks a Cold the first day, and checks Malaria in three days.

666 also in Liquid.

Quality Fives

Comfort from heel to toe. Long wear and easy on the pocketbook. What a fine combination. We want you heavy men to see this shoe. We want to show you that there is more genuine value in it for $5 than any shoe you ever tried on. Ask to see The Swagger. Complete run of widths and sizes.

Reed Routon & Co.

"Dependable Merchandise" We Deliver

Phone 28

PAGES 11-13

in the April 26th

Saturday Evening

Post

John-Manville

gives you valuable

information about roofs

WE are the authorized distributors

of JOHNS-MANVILLE Asbestos

Shingles, and we will gladly show

you samples of these beautiful fireproof shingles.

Please call us in and let us help you select the right roof for your home. No obligation of course.

Hope Lumber Co.

Hope, Ark. Phone 26

PILES

—and all rectal diseases fully treated without surgery. No hospital expense, no confinement in bed. Simply take the treatments in my office and go about your regular work.

FREE EXAMINATION. If you suffer from itching or protruding piles write me at once. Correspondence confidential. Examination and diagnosis free. Delay is dangerous. Act NOW.

Dr. A. O. Willkies
1111 Hotel Building
Shreveport, La.

Dairyman Wants Dr
Song Banned on A

Dairyman Wants Dry Song Banned on Air

BRANDON, In., April 21.—An appeal to program makers of radio stations that "How Dry I Am" be removed from programs during milk hours has been issued by Herd Brock.

Learning that an European belle holds that cows give more milk when the milker is singing, and fearing the strain on his hired men's vocal cords Brock installed a radio set in his barn to facilitate the milking chore.

The pre-prohibition ballad, he fears, might react unfavorably upon his dairy possessions should it be interpolated between a classical composition or a modern jazz number.

Dan Godbold, well known local businessman, will open a new grocery on West Second street about the last of May. It was learned today.

Ground was broken this morning on a new brick building which is to house his business. The location is on the south side of Second street, just beyond the L. & A. tracks, not far from the Public-Spenger theatre.

The building, a one-story structure of brick, is in charge of Contractor J. M. Britt. It will cost approximately

$9.98

Kayser Hose

A new clock hose, the clock being of contrasting color. The fashionable Kayser brand, of sheerest chiffon, and in the ultra new shades for summer.

$1.98

49c

98c

Summer Neckwear
 Cheney an dother silk ties of the better sort. In the more gorgeous patterns we have ever shown. Priced
 98c and

69c

Men's Footwear
Standard and branded all leather oxfords, in conservative of newest, snappy shapes. Black on tan. $1.98 down to

$2.98

39 SERVICE STATION
Corner Walnut and Third Street
Phone 39

